Workplace Policy on Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace in Brahmaputra Cracker & Polymer Ltd. (BCPL)

1. Preamble

Brahmaputra Cracker & Polymer Ltd. (BCPL) is committed to provide a safe and conducive work environment to its employees and towards this end it is essential that each employee is dealt with full fairness, respect and dignity with a view to having a sense of security for its employees at workplaces.

Harassment in any form including sexual harassment is strictly forbidden in the Company. Every woman employee has the right to be protected against harassment, regardless of whether the accused considers his own behaviour to be normal or acceptable and of whether the affected person/petitioner has the opportunity to avoid the harassment.

Earlier a rule on Prohibition of Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace has been inserted under BCPL Employees' (Conduct, Discipline and Appeal) Rules, 2013.

This policy will be to prevent Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace and implement the provisions of the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 ("Sexual Harassment Act"), along with its Rules. The provisions of the Act will prevail in case of conflict of interest or discrepancy.

2. Objective

To provide protection against sexual harassment of women at workplace and for the prevention and redressal for complaints of sexual harassment and for matters connected therewith or incidental thereto.

3. Applicability

This policy applies to all the employees employed by the Company at a workplace for any work on regular, temporary, secondees/deputationist ad hoc or daily wage basis, either directly or through an agent, including a contractor, with or without the knowledge of the principal employer, whether for remuneration or not, or working on a voluntary basis or otherwise, whether the terms of employment are express or implied and includes a co-worker, a contract worker, probationer, trainee, apprentice, or called by any other such name.

It shall be duty of the Officer In-charges/Heads of Departments to ensure that all its employees are aware of this policy and of the identity of the authority and committee under this policy.

4. "Sexual harassment" includes any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behaviour (whether directly or by implication) namely:-

- (i) Physical contact and advances; or
- (ii) A demand or request for sexual favour; or
- (iii) Making sexual coloured remarks; or
- (iv) Showing pornography; or
- (v) Any other unwelcome physical, verbal or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature;

5. Prevention of Sexual Harassment:

- 1) BCPL shall endeavour that no woman shall subject to sexual harassment at any work place.
- 2) The following circumstances, among other circumstances, if it occurs or is present in relation to or connected with any act or behaviour of sexual harassment:-
 - i) Implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in her employment, or
 - ii) Implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment in her employment; or
 - iii) Implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment in her employment status; or
 - iv) Interference with her work or creating an intimidating or offensive or hostile work environment for her; or
 - v) Humiliating treatment likely to affect her health or safety.

6. Remedies available to a woman if she is harassed at workplace/or at other places while on Duty

- (a) She can tell him that his behaviour is unwelcome and ask him stop.
- (b) Keep a record of incidents (dates, times, locations, possible witness, what happened, affected employee's response) confidentially. However, it is not mandatory to have a record of events to file complaint, but a record can strengthen her case and help her to remember the details over a period, in case the complaint is not filed immediately.
- (c) File a complaint as soon as possible and report the abuse to the Internal Complaint Committee (ICC) constituted in this behalf at workplaces in various locations either by writing or if not possible orally.

7. Constitution of Internal Complaints Committee

- i) BCPL shall, by an order in writing, constitute a Committee to be known as the "Internal Complaints Committee" at Work Centre which shall take cognizance of such complaint by an aggrieved woman at Work places.
- ii) The Internal Complaint Committee shall consist of the following members to be nominated by BCPL, namely:-

- (a) A Presiding Officer who shall be a woman employed at a senior level at workplace from amongst the employees:-

Provided that in case a senior level woman employee is not available, the Presiding Officer shall be nominated from other offices or administrative units of the workplace.
Provided that in case the officers or administrative units of the workplace do not have a senior level woman employee, the Presiding Officer shall be nominated from any other workplace of the same employer or other department or organisation;

- b) Not less than two Members from amongst employees preferably committed to the cause of women or who have had experience in work or have legal knowledge;

- c) One member from amongst non-governmental organisations or associations committed to the cause of women or a person familiar with issues relating to sexual harassment:

Provided that at least one-half of the total members so nominated shall be women.

P.B

(iii) The Presiding Officer and every member of the Internal Complaints Committee shall hold office for such period, not exceeding three years, from the date of their nomination as may be specified by BCPL Management.

(iv) The member so appointed from amongst the non-governmental organisations or associations shall be entitled to an allowance of five hundred rupees per day for holding the proceedings of the Internal Complaints Committee and the reimbursement of travel cost incurred in travelling will be regulated as per the travel entitlement of E-5 grade

8. Removal from the Committee:

If any member or presiding officer of the Internal Complaints Committee is found to be in violation of the provisions of the Act or contravened the provisions of the Act or this policy he/she shall be removed from the Committee by BCPL Management.

9. Reporting of Complaint of Sexual Harassment

Complaint of Sexual harassment

- (i) Any aggrieved woman may make, in writing, a complaint of sexual harassment at workplace to the Internal Committee if so constituted, or the Local Committee, in case it is not so constituted, within a period of three months from the date of incident and in case of a series of incidents, within a period of three months from the date of last incident.

The Internal Committee may, for the reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the time limit not exceeding three months, if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such which prevented the woman from filing a complaint within the said period.

- (ii) Where the aggrieved woman is unable to make a complaint on account of her physical or mental incapacity or death or otherwise, her legal heir or such other person as may be prescribed may make a complaint under this section.

10. Functions and powers of the Complaints Committee

The committee shall have powers to conciliate, conduct the inquiry, recommend action etc. as per the provisions/procedure laid down under the Act and Rules framed thereunder.

Action for malicious complaint or false evidence: Except in cases where service rules exist, where the Complaints Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the respondent is malicious or the aggrieved woman or any other person making the complaint has made the complaint knowing it to be false or the aggrieved woman or any other person making the complaint has produced any forged or misleading document, it may recommend to the Management, as the case may be, to take action in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

11. Appeal

Subject to the provisions of the Act, any person aggrieved from the recommendation made or non-implementation of such recommendation may prefer an appeal to the appellate authority as specified in BCPL Employees' (CDA) Rules 2013/ Standing Orders Act.

12. Prohibition of publication or making known contents of complaint and inquiry proceedings.

Notwithstanding anything contained in the Right to Information Act, 2005, the contents of the complaint above, the identity and addresses of the aggrieved woman, respondent and witness, any information relating to conciliation and inquiry proceedings, recommendations of the Internal Committee or the Local committee, as the case may be and the action taken by the employer/Management under the provisions of policy shall not be published, communicated or made known to the public, press and media in any manner.

However, where any person entrusted with the duty to handle or deal with the complaint inquiry or any recommendations or action to be taken under the provisions of this policy, contravenes the provision of the service rules applicable to the said person or where no such service rules exist, in such manner as may be prescribed.
